

Open Play – This is for singles or doubles matches Users want to play that are not full tournaments. For example, two or four players get together on a court in their neighborhood and they want to play to improve their stats.

Who Can Create “Open Play” – All Users have this option. Add this option to the (+) menu as well.

Add “Open Play” to the main menu

Creating the Open Play is similar to Creating Tournaments but with these changes

CREATE TOURNAMENT
Open Play

~~Tournament Name~~

~~Max # of ~~players~~~~ Singles or Doubles

~~Tournament Description~~

~~Select image~~
~~Maximum image size 10MB~~

~~Tournament Date :~~

~~Start Date~~ ~~End Date~~

~~Registration Date :~~

- Instead of “Create Tournament” it should say “Create Open Play”
- Eliminate Tournament Name
- Instead of “Max # of Players” it should give the option for “Singles” or “Doubles”
- Eliminate Tournament Description
- Eliminate Image (Icon can be “OP” letters on a tan or blue background)
- “Tournament Date” should say “Open Play Date” and no End Date or “Registration Date”

~~Registration Date :~~

~~Start Date~~ ~~End Date~~

~~Location :~~

~~Search~~
~~Add Map Pin option to auto locate~~

~~Add Players~~

~~Registration Fee :~~

~~Type Here~~

~~Add more Fees~~

Fees name	Cost

~~Remove more Fees~~

~~Tournament Registration :~~

~~Invite Only~~ ~~Public~~

~~Play Type :~~

~~Select Play Type~~

- Eliminate Registration Date section
- Allow maps to auto pin location or user can enter new location
- Allow to “Add Players” and then add players by searching from a list of users. If “Open Play Singles, only one user can be added. If “Open Play Doubles” 3 more users must be added.
- Eliminate Registration Fees (all fee) section
- Eliminate Tournament Registration section
- Everything in Play Type and after stays the same.
- Player will need to “Start” the Open Play
- When players complete the open play, they are notified to add their points.
- Their points won and match wins / losses get added to their “stats” section.